

Friends of VOP-

Our Annual VOP meeting was held at First Euless-Campus West building October 15, 2009 and we are pleased to announce our 2 newest board members: Janet Wells and Curtis Bottenfield. Returning to the board include Jeff Allred, Ajay Reddy and Anup Dhruve. A couple of the key issues discussed was neighborhood participation in crime watch and getting ideas how to best use the pie shape property on Oak Leaf that now has a sprinkler system and new grass.

CRIME PREVENTION 101

We are looking for residents that would like to host a crime watch/prevention class in their home. Sgt. Randy Gardner of the Bedford police department has offered free of charge to meet on Tuesdays from 7-8pm (minimum of 5 resident addresses represented). We strongly encourage our residents to take advantage of his expertise and experience. With the holiday season fast approaching, Sgt. Gardner will offer tips on when burglars strike, what they look for, how they break in, common mistakes homeowners make and what you can do to best protect your family and property. Simply contact 5-6 nearby neighbors and if your neighborhood is willing to host an event in your home, please contact VOP President Jeff Allred at Riv63@att.net. Include your name, address, number of participants. Jeff will connect you with Sgt Gardner.
